 OUR JOURNEY

Home to more than 2,000 acres of vines, El Dorado County has been California’s most unique destination for wine adventurers since the first vineyard was planted in 1849. During the Gold Rush, El Dorado County boomed as fortune seekers arrived to forge new destinies.

FULL, DIVERSE FLAVORS

Today, from a diverse range of more than 70 grape varieties, El Dorado County winemakers produce some of California’s most sophisticated wines. The high altitude growing conditions allow our vines to stay cool while receiving more hours of sunlight, leading them to ripen fully with a perfect blend of flavors.

THE HEIGHT OF TASTE

Every great tale immerses its explorers in captivating, multifaceted terrain. The picturesque foothills of El Dorado County, ranging in elevation from 1,200 to 3,200 feet, have supported a vibrant agricultural community for nearly 170 years. Featuring several distinct climate zones and hundreds of microclimates, this region is unique for its high elevation and complex topography.
